

Proper use and behavior in a distance learning environment will be determined by your school's existing guidelines covered in the district's Acceptable Use Policy (AUP) and the Idaho Digital Learning Academy's Acceptable Use of Technology Policy.

Idaho Digital Learning Academy Acceptable Use of Technology Policy (AUP)

Computers, computer networks and the internet provide essential tools that support distance learning and Idaho Digital Learning. All students are expected to use Idaho Digital Learning and the resources provided to access Idaho Digital Learning for purposes appropriate to the education environment.

You must refrain from any use that is not consistent with the policies, purposes or objectives of either the hosting district or Idaho Digital Learning.

Prohibited uses of technology

The use of communication tools (email, discussion boards, web pages, chat, and others) should not be used for any communication that is:

- defamatory
 - inaccurate
 - abusive
 - rude
 - obscene
 - profane
 - sexually explicit
 - threatening
 - harassing
 - racially offensive
 - illegal
 - encouraging the use of illegal materials
 - inconsistent with the policies, purposes or objectives of either the hosting district or Idaho Digital Learning
- Impersonating another individual, including, but not limited to, the use of another user's login or password, communicating or completing work on behalf of another individual, or mocking others in a derogatory manner.

- Revealing personal or private information to others such as home address, age, gender, phone number, etc. You should also be cautious when releasing this information about yourself.
- Disrupting the use of technology by another user or service. This includes, but is not limited to, attempts to harm or destroy data, uploading and/or creating computer viruses, uploading and/or downloading information without need, sending or receiving of data with the intent to degrade network performance, etc.
- Violation of any local, state, or federal regulation or statute.
- You will not use Idaho Digital Learning resources to sell or offer to sell any goods or services without prior approval of both the hosting district Board and the Idaho Digital Learning board.

Idaho Digital Learning Rights and Responsibilities

- Idaho Digital Learning reserves the right to monitor all activity related to Idaho Digital Learning courses or sites.
- Idaho Digital Learning reserves the right to block or remove any material that is not consistent with policies, purposes, or objectives of either the host district or Idaho Digital Learning.
- Opinions, advice, services and all other information expressed by Idaho Digital Learning staff, students, information providers or instructors are those of the individual and do not represent the position of Idaho Digital Learning.

Discipline

Student discipline for violation of any part of the policies, rules, or procedures of Idaho Digital Learning shall be based on the severity of the infraction.

- If the Idaho Digital Learning teacher or monitor feels your behavior is not consistent with the policies, purposes, or objectives of the hosting district, or Idaho Digital Learning, the teacher will notify your site coordinator.
- The site coordinator is then responsible for bringing the matter before the appropriate school administrator(s) for disciplinary action.
- The teacher may also wish to hold a conference with you and your parents.
- The Idaho Digital Learning board of directors also reserves the right to enact additional disciplinary action including the ability to revoke the offending student's privilege of using Idaho Digital Learning.
